

The original Midway First Ward Chapel dedicated in 1914. When the new chapel was built years later this portion was incorporated in the new building.

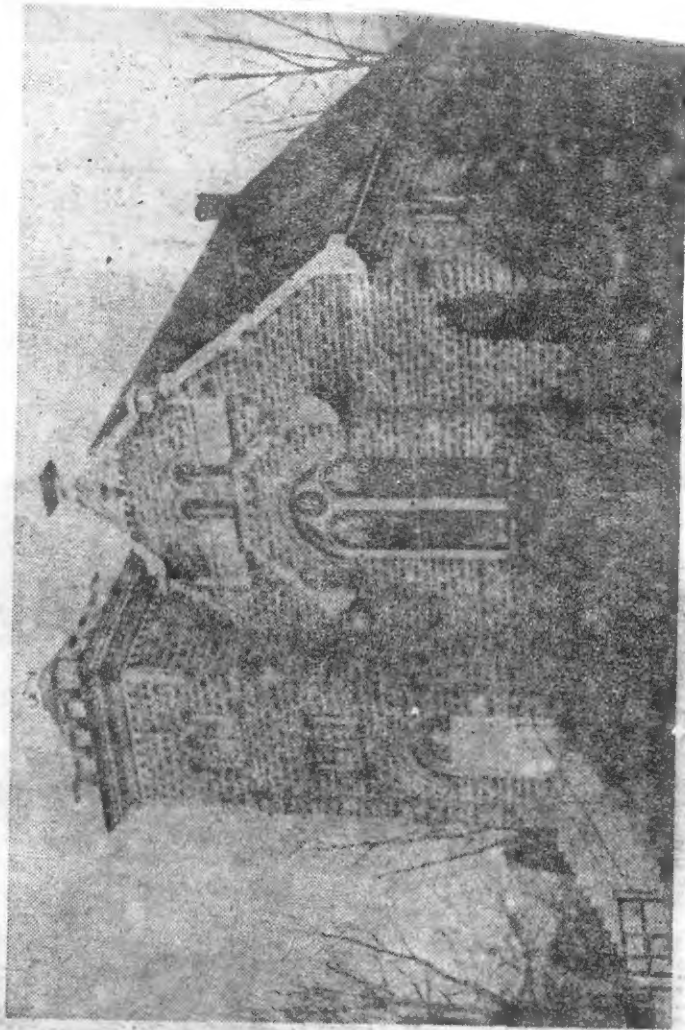

*Religious Buildings in Midway
Midway 1st Ward
Dedicated 1914*

The old Midway First Ward was built of native pot rock and was dedicated in 1914.

Pictures taken from a Bi-Centennial Quilt made by the Midway First Ward, which quilt is now hanging on display in the L.D.S. Church Relief Society Building.

Midway's First LDS Ward Chapel will gain a new addition and renovating job, with original building completed back in 1908.

LDS Launches Addition at Midway

Special to The Tribune

MIDWAY, Wasatch County—Work is under way here on the renovation and an addition to the First Ward chapel, Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

FOOTINGS AND foundations have been poured, under supervision of Earl Kohler of Midway.

Plans for the $130,000 improvement project were drawn by Clifford Evans, Salt Lake architect.

THE ORIGINAL building was started in 1904 and completed in 1908. It was built of rocks quarried from a pasture owned by John U. Buchler of Midway.

The stained glass windows of the old building will be installed in the new building.

THE STRUCTURE was dedicated in 1913 by Jarr Talmadge of the Court Twelve Apostles.

Completion of the new addition is expected by June. Burton B. Van Wagoner, announced.